Imogen Huzel, born 1994 is a British/ German multidisciplinary artist. She has always been non stop. Passionate for what is next and continuously actualising new enriching artistic meetings across disciplines. On stage and in visual arts she is drawn to authenticity, playfulness and imagination. She has an affinity for outsider art, and it inspires her as a creator by its wholehearted engagement with emotions and communication, while it's freedom from social constraints reassured her that dedication to unconventional and honest creation, is not a mad and useless life plan. She is very eager to taste the variety that the performance art world has to offer and is thirsty for new collaborations and challenges.
